Still ongoing –

Field: Melvin Elliott/Jim Craig. –

The field is a coming back, mowing is again needed as it emerges from the summer heat. Fertilizer and seed are to be applied Saturday morning. Cross runway expanded about 30 feet to accommodate a possible over run.

Safety: Derek Cox – not available - No report given although it was noted that there was a slight mishap at the fun fly where a sneaker was cut by a prop. Please all - be careful.

Programs: Jim Craig emphasized that there will be a trip to the Dulles – Smithsonian air museum on Saturday the 24th. All going should be at VTS by 8 am to organize car pools as there is a $15 parking fee (but no admission fee). An E-mail will be sent out prior to the newsletter to assure that most will be aware of the trip.

Old (Other) Business

Hank Mausolf reported that the Bealeton show included the Aeromasters with the largest participant representation. 84 registered fliers and 4 VIPs were present along with their observers made a very nice and interesting crowd and aircraft diversity.

New Business:

Dan Hayworth noted that 43 T-Shirts had been ordered (8 for the club to hold and sell) and will cost $15 each with $3.00 going to the club treasury.

Gratitude was expressed by the club members toward Chester Barber who is at the field often and helps any one and everyone that is there with him and for some of the work that he has willingly pitched in to get done. Thanks Chester.

A contingent from the club will do a fly over and fly by at the NI River middle school on Monday. They will be holding a Special Olympics event and the fly over will occur during or immediately after the National Anthem. Currently Chester and Jim Braithwaite will do the honors, provided weather and schedule hold.

Show and Tell:

JIM Chandler brought in old (1944 era) Cleveland Hellcat and Cleveland Condor kits, still in the box and in very good shape.

Also brought in was an Aeronca Champ, which is reported to fly very nicely in the wind. Complete with 2.4 ghzelectronics and only about $89.00. (Please help me- who brought it in escapes me and I can't read my own handwriting)

If you are missing the regular meetings you are missing some good stuff.
